The image shows the musical notation for the hymn 'I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light'. It consists of two staves of music. The first staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is written in a simple, clear style. Below the first staff, there are three lines of lyrics, numbered 1, 2, and 3. The second staff continues the melody, and below it are three lines of lyrics. The lyrics are: 1 I want to walk as a child of the light. 2 I want to see the bright-ness of God. 3 I'm look - ing for the com - ing of Christ. The second staff continues with: I want to fol - low Je - sus. I want to look at Je - sus. I want to be with Je - sus.

God set the stars to give light to the world.
 Clear Sun of Righteousness, shine on my path,
 When we have run with patience the race,

The star of my life is Je - sus.
 And show me the way to the Fa - ther.
 We shall know the joy of Je - sus.

Refrain

In Him there is no dark - ness at all.

The night and the day are both a - like.

The Lamb is the light of the cit - y of God.

Shine in my heart, Lord Je - sus.

(Matthew 28:19b; 18:20)
- C Amen.

Exhortation

- P Our help is in the name of the Lord,
 C who made heaven and earth. *Psalm 124:8

P If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand?
C But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared.
Psalm 130:3-4

P Since we are gathered to hear God's Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, and receive the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the fellowship of this altar, let us first consider our unworthiness and confess before God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and that we cannot free ourselves from our sinful condition. Together as His people let us take refuge in the infinite mercy of God, our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner. (Luke 18:13)

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 2:1–5

¹The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²It shall come to pass in the latter days
that the mountain of the house of the LORD
shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be lifted up above the hills;
and all the nations shall flow to it,

³and many peoples shall come, and say:
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob,
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths.”

For out of Zion shall go the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

⁴He shall judge between the nations,
and shall decide disputes for many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore.

⁵O house of Jacob,
come, let us walk
in the light of the LORD.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

Romans 13:8–14

⁸Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,” and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” ¹⁰Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

¹¹Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed.

¹²The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 24:36–44

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the twenty-fourth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

³⁶[Jesus said:] “But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. ³⁷As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, ³⁹and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. ⁴¹Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. ⁴²Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

Creed [“Creed” comes from the Latin credo, which means “I believe.” From the time of Pentecost, the Ancient Christian Church has confessed a creed. The Early Christian Church has always believed, taught, and confessed these Scriptural teachings. This is why we are called a Creedal Church.] (Us men means all people)

He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven

P It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, for the countless blessings You so freely bestow on us and all creation. Above all, we give thanks for Your boundless love shown to us when You sent Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, into our flesh and laid on Him our sin, giving Him into death that we might not die eternally. Because He is now risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity, all who believe in Him will overcome sin and death and will rise again to new life. Prayer of Thanksgiving

P Blessed are You, O Lord our God, king of all creation, for You have had mercy on us and given Your only-begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

In Your boundless mercy You sent Your servant, John the Baptist, to proclaim that in Christ the kingdom of heaven draws near.

With thankful hearts we pray, “Come, Lord Jesus,” confident that in His body and blood, given us to eat and drink, we receive the forgiveness of sins and so proclaim His death until He comes again in glory.

Hear us as we pray in His name and as He has taught us:

Lord’s Prayer Matthew 6:9-13

C Our Father who art in heaven,
 hallowed be Thy name,
 Thy kingdom come,
 Thy will be done on earth
 as it is in heaven;
 give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom
 and the power and the glory
 forever and ever. Amen.

Bible Nugget – Advent I

“Home at the Mountain” – Isaiah 2:1–5

In Isaiah’s vision, God lifts His mountain above every hill—not to show power, but to welcome people home. The nations flow uphill, something rivers never do. That’s the miracle of grace: God draws wandering hearts back to Himself. On that mountain, swords become plowshares. Weapons become tools of life. Fear gives way to peace. And then comes the invitation that shapes Advent:

“Come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.”

Advent begins with that simple truth— we do not climb our way to God. God comes down the mountain to us. In the manger... in His Word... in His Supper... and one day, in glory. Until then, we walk in His light, awake and hopeful, because our true Home is already on the way.

Advent I – Reflection Questions

1. Where in your life do you feel a longing for “home”—for peace, belonging, or a fresh start—and how does Isaiah’s vision of God’s mountain speak into that longing?
 2. Jesus warns against spiritual sleep. What are the ordinary distractions—busyness, noise, screens, stress, comparison—that most easily put your heart on autopilot?
 3. In what ways have you sensed the lie that you must “fix yourself,” “prove yourself,” or “be enough” on your own? How does Advent pull you out of that lie and back into grace?
 4. What would it look like this week to “walk in the light of the LORD”—in your home, school, workplace, friendships, or personal patterns? What one step is the Spirit putting on your heart?
 5. Advent is about Jesus coming down the mountain to be with His people. How does His presence—in the Word, in worship, at His Table—reshape the way you face fear, uncertainty, or loneliness?

Advent I – Family Talk Questions

1. When have you felt most “at home” — safe, loved, and welcomed? How does Jesus bring that same feeling to us during Advent?
2. Isaiah saw people flowing up God’s mountain like a river. What might “walking in God’s light” look like in our home this week?
3. Jesus tells us to “stay awake.” What kinds of things (big or small) make it hard to pay attention to God during the week? How can we help each other stay focused?
4. If Jesus knocked on our door tonight, what would you want to talk with Him about? What would you thank Him for?
5. What can our family do this Advent to make our home peaceful, joyful, and centered on Jesus—like a “little mountain of the Lord” in our neighborhood?
